NEWS IN BRIEF

The Renewable Heat Incentive (RHI) is now offering retrospective incentive payments.

If you installed eligible renewable heat measures after 15 July 2009 and have not received any government support since then (other than from the renewable heat premium payment scheme (RHPP) which would be deducted from any RHI payments), you could qualify for a legacy payment.

Organic Energy MD Andy Boroughs was introduced to Nigel Adams MP, Chairman of the All Party Parliamentary Biomass Group. They discussed proposals to convert decommissioned coal fired power stations to generate electricity from wood pellets.

ÖkoFEN CEO Stefan Ortner recently paid another visit to the Organic Energy head office in Welshpool. One topic of conversation was the positive effect of the growing move to renewable energy on the continent. For example, in Germany this June, a surplus of energy fed back into the national grid by customers generating their own energy from renewable sources resulted in a reduction in domestic energy prices.

FREE FUEL ANYONE?

With mainstream energy companies putting their prices up by around 12%, and forecasters predicting an extremely long hard winter, the cost of fuel is an ongoing concern for everyone. So don't forget that when you introduce us to a friend or family member who then becomes an ÖkoFEN boiler owner, we'll be delighted to send you a £100 Fuel Voucher.

MEMBER FEEDBACK

We're always pleased to hear from Club OE members about how much they love their boiler, and the Organic Energy Service. Here's just one of the many endorsements we have received recently.

"The ÖkoFEN has done a brilliant, clean and green job of heating my home. It's also been totally reliable – in fact easier to live with than the oil boiler it replaced. Yep – still very happy with my choice of boiler. Of all the inanimate objects in my life, I only love my Land Rover more."

Andy Williams

If you'd like to tell us about the difference your boiler has made to your life, we'd love to hear from you. You can e-mail your comments to andrew@organicenergy.co.uk

DON'T FORGET

It's important to have your ÖkoFEN boiler serviced in accordance with your User Guide. Please contact your local Team OE Installer or Organic Energy.

And with the festive season just around the corner, don't forget to order your fuel in plenty of time for Christmas and New Year.

The Organic Energy team wish all Club OE members and their families a very warm Christmas and happy renewable New Year.
